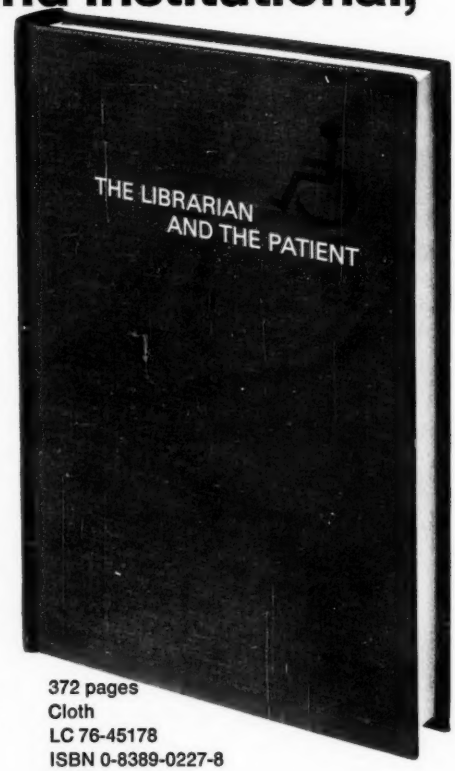
Developing an understanding of the value of the library, both public and institutional, in the health care setting

The Librarian and the Patient

Eleanor Phinney, editor



This is the first comprehensive work on the planning of library services to patients in all health care institutions. The Librarian and the Patient integrates and expands the principles and standards that have been adopted to make the patients' library useful in medical and rehabilitative care. It concerns itself with many types and sizes of institutional settings and with patients receiving temporary or permanent care. Institutions for the mentally retarded and physically handicapped as well as those for the ill and injured are included. Information throughout the text is presented not as fixed procedures but as a basis on which each institution and its library may plan or develop services to fit its own situation and needs. Because of this emphasis upon principles, public libraries and state agencies as well as personnel responsible for patients' libraries will identify important extensions of their own functions.

A useful feature is the fully annotated bibliography for each chapter, intended to give the reader an opportunity to explore more deeply the problems examined in that chapter. Other features are the appendix material which samples the variety of public library services to health care institutions, and the diagrams and floor plans drawn with reference to patient needs.

booklist editorial policy
Booklist is a program of the American Library Association's Publishing Committee. The purpose of Booklist is to provide a current guide to materials worthy of consideration for purchase by small and medium-sized public libraries, school media centers, and community college libraries. Materials considered for review, with the exception of books in the non-English language bibliographies, are limited to works published in English and distributed in the U.S. Textbooks may be evaluated and selected when relevant for library use. Materials which are highly technical, sectarian, or parochial in character, free materials, periodicals, and pamphlets are outside the scope of the regular reviewing program. Standard selection criteria consonant with the Library Bill of Rights and its various interpretations as adopted by the Council of the American Library Association are followed by the Booklist staff.

A review in Booklist constitutes a recommendation for library purchase. ★ beside a title is a mark of quality, not necessarily of wide appeal or usefulness, and indicates an item selected by the staff as particularly good in its genre. YA at the end of an imprint denotes a book also recommended in the Books for Young Adults section. Addresses are given only for publishers not listed in the current edition of Literary Market Place.

The Booklist editorial and reviewing staff has the responsibility for selection and review of books and nonprint materials in the regular sections. Editors also assign materials to carefully selected field librarians and media and subject specialists. Selection and annotation of items in special lists are the responsibility of the reviewer.

As a general policy Booklist does not consider for review books received more than one month after publication date: the limit for nonprint materials is three months following release date. Booklist uses the Dewey Decimal Classification and Library of Congress subject headings from Cataloging in Publication [CIP] or from the cataloging data of the Ohio College Library Center [OCLC]. When these are not available, classification and subject headings assigned by the Booklist cataloger are indicated by †.

reference and subscription books reviews
These reviews are prepared by members of the ALA Reference and Subscription Books Review Committee and represent the combined opinion of the Committee. RSBR is a separate publication within Booklist and operates totally under its own policies and procedures. Books not recommended for purchase as well as those recommended are reviewed.

advertising policy
Booklist adheres to all commonly accepted advertising practices and makes every effort to treat its advertisers fairly. Booklist reserves the right to reject any advertisement. Acceptance of the advertisement does not imply endorsement of the product or service advertised.

production
The staff of the ALA Central Production Unit coordinates the production of Booklist with composition on the computer-driven photocomposition system of Auto-Graphics, Inc., Monterey Park, California, prepress film preparation by J. & J. Graphics, Chicago, Illinois, and printing, binding, and distribution by W. A. Krueger Co., Brookfield, Wisconsin. Design consultation by Apostrophe, Chicago, Illinois.

subscriptions
Booklist is published twice monthly, September through July, and once in August by the American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611. Subscriptions: USA, Canada, and PUAS countries, $28 per year; other countries $30. Single copy $1.50. Address new subscriptions, renewals, and related correspondence to Robert Nelson, Manager, Membership, Subscription and Order Services. Second-class postage paid at Chicago, Illinois and at additional mailing offices. (ISSN 0006-7385)

The whale's side of the story emerges in this moving, unusual novel about one blue whale's life-long fight to survive against man...

"After reading this informative novel, many may feel like heading right out to the barricades to protest."—Publishers Weekly

"A special kind of book."

Displaced Person
by MARIE HALUN BLOCH

"Bloch has succeeded in portraying [14-year-old] Stefan as an individual and as a victim of massive historical forces. His pain and confusion will add to readers' thoughts on a war that has not often been shown from this point of view."—ALA Booklist. "Stefan's journeys—actual and interior—create suspense and sustain interest." —School Library Journal. "Fictional integrity and historical authenticity..." —Kirkus Reviews

MATH EQUALS

Biographies of Women Mathematicians and Related Activities
Teri Perl

From Choice, March, 1979:
"An excellent, documented historical account of contributions made by women interested in mathematics presented in a most unusual and readable format . . . enhanced by excellent illustrations both pictorial and mathematical . . . should be available in all academic libraries . . . focus is on the contemporary aspect of giving proper recognition to women, especially in a field associated with male dominance . . . contains various sources from which a wealth of information can be gleaned."

"Highly Recommended"

Holt, Robert Lawrence. Hemorrhoids: a cure and preventative.
California Health Publications, 347 Mermaid, Box 963, Laguna Beach, Calif. 92652
SPECIAL LIBRARY EDITION
$11.25

Here is an enlightened, optimistic view of a previously unmentionable affliction. Enduring constant pain and irritation or submitting to painful surgery with doubtful prognosis are no longer the only options facing millions of hemorrhoid sufferers. The book presents a clearly detailed program for breaking the cycle of bad diet, poor toilet habits, and lack of exercise, together implicated as the major cause of hemorrhoids. For those beyond preventive measures, a revolutionary new technique called cryosurgery is presented as offering the best hope of a "cure" for hemorrhoids without requiring the ordeal of traditional surgery and prolonged recovery. Proctologists trained in cryosurgery are listed. Highly recommended for public and patient libraries.—LIBRARY JOURNAL

"Double-Edged Secrets is a wonderful read. I recommend it unreservedly to anyone who wants to know not only what was done, but how it came to be done." David Kahn, author of The Codebreakers and Hitler's Spies

"Now, here it is, the inside story of the war in the Pacific with its successes and its failures, its lousy torpedoes, and its heroic warriors, ashore and at sea." Captain Edward L. Beach, USN (Ret.), author of Run Silent, Run Deep and Cold is the Sea

DOUBLE-EDGED SECRETS
By Captain W.J. Holmes, USN (Ret.)

Double-Edged Secrets is the first inside account of the gathering and use of intelligence at Pearl Harbor between 1941 and 1945. It is a story that few men living today could tell in the first person, for it covers incidents of the Pacific War that could not be otherwise recorded in those hectic days. Fewer still could write of them as brilliantly as has Captain Holmes.

Holmes was assigned to the Combat Center at CinCPac headquarters in 1941. He describes a multiplicity of intelligence sources; photo interpretation; intelligence teams for major naval units; terrain models of Japanese held islands; captured documents; prisoner interrogation; indeed, the myriad ways in which our intelligence was gathered.

This story of how the commander in chief in the Pacific used the ever-increasing flow of intelligence is not complete without the details Holmes provides of the herculean efforts put forth by that selfless group of men in a crowded basement in Pearl Harbor. It is all here in this skillfully written book, and it is told with a touch of compassion and humor. August 1979. 240 pages. 25 illustrations, 2 maps. List price: $11.95

ALA Titles of Special Interest for Pre-White House Conference Delegates

Problems and opportunities for U. S. libraries presently being discussed at state and regional meetings in preparation for the 1979 White House Conference are diverse and can be difficult to grasp even for professional librarians. Lay persons involved in these planning meetings may be perplexed by some of them.

The following short list of titles has been selected by ALA editors as those that may be particularly helpful, in whole or in part, in clarifying some of the important issues involving libraries. The books are available in many libraries, or they may be purchased direct from the American Library Association.

Directions for Library Service to Young Adults

Young Adult Services Division, ALA

This work identifies the aspect of young adult service in each of the functions of the public library. The introduction is an eloquent statement of the importance of building into young adult service a responsiveness to the emotional and social needs of young people.

30 pages Paper ISBN 0-8389-3204-5 (1978) $2.50

The ALA Yearbook

This annual publication of the American Library Association provides an excellent overview of significant events in librarianship for the year preceding publication. The Yearbook is now in its third volume. Of particular interest is Samuel Gould's article, "Independent Learning and the Future Role of Public Libraries" in the 1976 volume. In his article Mr. Gould suggests the forms education must take if it is to adapt to the needs of contemporary society. These forms suggest that the public library can assume a coordinating role with the assumption of new functions.

The ALA Yearbook 1976 ISBN 0-8389-0223-5 $25.00
The ALA Yearbook 1977 ISBN 0-8389-0233-2 $30.00
The ALA Yearbook 1978 ISBN 0-8389-0261-8 $35.00

The Library Connection

Public Library Association, ALA

A collection of light, easy-to-read personal essays by well known public figures on how the public library permitted them to develop their various interests.

96 pages Paper ISBN 0-8389-3202-9 (1977) $5.00

Literacy and the Nation's Libraries

Helen H. Lyman

Chapter 1 of this excellent title considers the problem of illiteracy in an educated society and identifies for the library an active role in the literacy effort that is compatible with its usual functions.

232 pages Cloth ISBN 0-8389-0244-8 (1977) $12.50

Media Programs: District and School

American Association of School Librarians, ALA, and Association for Educational Communication and Technology

Chapter 2 and the Conclusion of this work explain the philosophy of the school media program as an effective mix of people, facilities, and machines organized in the best ways for quality education.

136 pages Paper ISBN 0-8389-3159-6 (1975) $2.95

Public Library Finance

Ann E. Prentice

In Chapters 2 through 5, Ms. Prentice tells how the public library is related to different sources of government funding. The adequacy of these funding sources is analyzed in relation to library needs.

156 pages Paper ISBN 0-8389-0240-5 (1977) $7.00

Order Department
American Library Association 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611

It pays to join the American Library Association, the oldest and largest association for the promotion of libraries and librarianship. The investment is small. The return: a better future for you and better libraries for everyone.

What you get . . .
Information and interaction for professional development.
Basic support through active national programs in legislation, intellectual freedom, standards, research and more.
Direct benefits such as the ALA journal, American Libraries, personal discounts on ALA monographs, member rates at conferences, insurance privileges, and voting privileges, and . . .
A voice in the future of your profession.

For what you pay.
A new dues schedule is now in effect for personal members. It features a simple flat rate $35 ALA membership. Division memberships are an additional $15 each. Students and non-salaried or retired librarians pay $10 basic dues plus $15 for each division selected.
